STATE OFFICER CANDIDATE GUIDE

Letter to Chapter Advisers

Nevada FCCLA Chapter Advisers:

The Nevada FCCLA State Officer Program provides tremendous opportunities for students to gain new leadership skills, learn critical thinking, improve their planning and organizational skills, become stronger speakers, demonstrate initiative, and much more. In short, it is a unique and valuable experience that we are excited to share with your students.

Along with the considerable benefits that come with being a State Officer, there are important responsibilities that officers take on; and we need your help to ensure that students who plan to run for state office are aware of these responsibilities. If elected, both you and they will ensure that those responsibilities are fulfilled.

As an adviser with a candidate and (if elected) a State Officer, the expectation is that you will:

- Assist your candidate with completing all required aspects of the State Officer Candidate Application and review their candidate speech.
- Make a personal commitment to cooperate with the State Adviser to ensure that your State Officer fulfills all of his/her state officer responsibilities, including responsibilities for non-mandatory events.
- Serve as an ongoing mentor to your state officer.
- Arrange additional time to work with your state officer.
- Review with your state officer the State Officer Team Accountability Chart to ensure that they are on track and up-to-date on all assignments.
- Assist with travel arrangements, traveling with your officer when necessary.
- Edit and review materials and communication before officers submit and distribute them.
- Provide your officer with workspace supplies, telephone access, email access, and any necessary financial support when appropriate.
- Assist with the ongoing training of officers.

By signing the forms included in this packet, you are making a commitment to your candidate/state officer and Nevada FCCLA. Training and directing our state officers is a team effort, and it is essential that the officer's adviser is a part of that team.

Thank you for encouraging your student to step forward and to seek a position as a Nevada FCCLA State Officer.

Sincerely,

Marci Shields, State Adviser
Nevada FCCLA

Is Running for State Office Right For Me?

IS RUNNING FOR NEVADA FCCLA STATE OFFICE RIGHT FOR ME?

We are excited that you are considering running for a Nevada FCCLA State Office. The opportunities provided to state officers are tremendous and many of our state officer alumni count their time as an officer as a pivotal experience in their life. Along with the opportunities and benefits of being an officer comes many important responsibilities. Be sure that you carefully consider your decision to run for state office and what it requires.

The average state officer will spend five to ten hours a week working on their state officer projects and responsibilities. Prior to state officer meetings, conferences, and FCCLA events, the amount of time required tends to spike as officers finalize preparations and polish up projects. It is important to realize that although academics remain the number one priority, you will not be able to fall behind in your responsibilities as an FCCLA officer. You will be required to participate in the team decision-making process, perform your assigned tasks, and attend all required conferences and events.

If you are elected, you will be required to attend conferences, officer meetings, officer calls, and FCCLA events throughout the year. You will not be allowed to leave early, come late, or miss any parts of these events (except in the case of an extreme emergency). We have frequently had officers who had to miss out on big games, dances, trips, etc., because they conflicted with their state officer responsibilities. The expectation is that your state officer responsibilities and commitments will take priority after your academics.

Please carefully review the documents and information in this packet to be sure that you fully understand what will be expected/required of you as a state officer if you are elected.

If you are willing to make this kind of commitment and are the type of person that has the drive to succeed and the encouragement and dedication to get the job done, an FCCLA office is definitely for you! If you are unsure, you may want to speak with your adviser to see if running for a state office is right for you. If you decide to run for office, be assured that holding state office will be one of the most memorable experiences of your life and one of the most effective career preparation experiences you will have while in high school.

All applications for Nevada FCCLA State Office are due February 1, 2019!

STATE AND NATIONAL OFFICER CANDIDATE ELECTION PROCESS

The state officer election will take place after the General Business Session of the State Leadership Conference.

1. Each State and National Officer Candidate will take a written evaluation over basic facts of the FCCLA organization. The “Handbook for Ultimate Leadership” is an excellent resource. Some questions may come from current Teen Times issues, Nevada FCCLA online blog/newsletter the “Rose Trail,” or current events related to family and consumer sciences, FCCLA, or education in Nevada. The candidates should be familiar with the names of overall purposes of other Nevada state-sponsored Career and Technical Student Organizations.
2. Each State and National Officer Candidate will participate in an interview, prior to the Opening General Session at the State Leadership Conference. During the interview, all candidates will be interviewed separately, discussing their ideas for the year ahead as well as topics, such as teamwork, leadership, and National FCCLA programs and competitive events.
3. During the Opening General Session of the State Leadership Conference, State and National Officer Candidates will present their speech to the Nevada Delegation. Speeches must be no longer than 2 minutes and address the subject of why they want to be a state officer and what qualities they possess that would make them an excellent state officer. Officers should incorporate the state theme into their speech. No props or costumes will be allowed. The state theme for 2018-2019 is “A World of Opportunities.”
4. After delivering their speech, each State and National Officer Candidate will be asked one (1) factual and one (1) situational question related to FCCLA information.
5. After all candidates have presented their speeches and on-stage questions, State and National Officer Candidates, voting delegates, and chapter members will have the opportunity to meet candidates during the Meet and Greet Session. In addition to a Meet and Greet Workshop Session on Wednesday.
6. After the Opening General Session, each school will have the opportunity to deliberate with their voting delegates. After reaching a decision on which candidates will receive their chapter’s vote, delegates will cast their ballots for State and National Officer Candidates during the voting session. Each school will have two (2) votes.
7. In case of a tie, a run-off election will take place. Voting delegates will be reconvened in order to cast their ballots again.

State/National Officer Candidate Information

8. A qualified candidate who is not elected to office will have their application submitted to the newly elected officer team for consideration in filling any vacant positions.
9. If no candidate is elected for a specific office, that office will be appointed by the newly elected State President, under the advisement of the State Adviser.
10. Officer Candidates will be notified of election outcome at the State Officer Candidate Letter Drop from 2:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday in the Conference Headquarters at the State Leadership Conference.
11. Newly elected officers are required to attend a Transition Meeting on Wednesday from 3:15 p.m. to 4:15 p.m., as well as a training on Thursday from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Newly elected officers must be in the official FCCLA uniform for these meetings.

Newly elected female officers should bring a white dress to wear during the installation process, and newly elected male officers should wear black dress pants, black suit jacket, white button dress shirt, and black tie during the installation ceremony. Please review the dress code guidelines in the State Leadership Conference Guide to ensure appropriateness of clothing choice.

I further understand that if, in the opinion of the majority of the Management Team and State Adviser, I fail to fulfill my responsibilities and obligations of office, and/or I violate the Nevada FCCLA Student Code of Conduct, I can be removed from office."

State officers are strongly encouraged, but not required, to attend the following conferences: National Leadership Conference, National Cluster Meeting, and Capitol Leadership.

Nevada FCCLA will pay all expenses for required activities. Please note that while Nevada FCCLA pays most travel expenses, some extra expenses will be the responsibility of each state officer (meals during travel to and from meetings and personal spending money).
