

As a senior at Moapa Valley High School, Blakey Anderson currently serves as Nevada FCCLA's 2017-2018 Executive Vice President. She has been a member for three years and has loved every second of it. At FCCLA State Conferences, she enjoys competing in the PEP Event "Fiber Art". She is the youngest of six children, all of which have been a part of FCCLA. From her siblings' example, she has seen their professional and personal growth through FCCLA. That is when she decided to become a member.

Blakey is also involved in tennis, sewing class, band, National Honor Society, and church callings. She enjoys being involved and being social. Blakey loves spending time with her family and her friends. She loves listening to music, laughing, children, her nieces and nephews, sewing, playing guitar, hiking, and traveling.

When Blakey graduates high school, she plans on attending college. Her career goal is to become a dental hygienist. She also plans on getting married and raising a family in her future.

Blakey has enjoyed FCCLA and all it has to offer. She loves being involved in FCCLA for the leadership experiences, the lessons for her future, traveling, and making new friends along the way. She works hard to fulfill her tasks as a State Officer and her positive, charismatic attitude will help her go far.
