

Biography

Maria Valenzuela is the Nevada FCCLA Vice President of Development for the year 2018-2019. As of now, she's a junior. She is currently enrolled at East Career and Technical Academy in the Early Childhood Education program. She was first introduced into FCCLA during her Freshman year and since then been an active member for the past 3 years. She has competed in Illustrated talk her Freshman year and Advocacy her Sophomore year.

Her future goals are to either become a 1st-grade Elementary teacher or child psychologist. Her career goal was set when she volunteered her summer at her local elementary school helping her former 1st-grade teacher. She enjoys spending her time with children and volunteering.

Maria is also a very active student at her school as she is part of the American Red Cross club, Environmental Club, National Honor Society and FCCLA! She enjoys hanging out with her loved one, volunteering, and pugs. Her deep desire is to have a pug.

When Maria isn't busy working on FCCLA or studying for her test she enjoys to binge watch shows such as The Office and How I Met Your Mother. She is also a big fanatic when it comes to One Direction and Star Wars.

Full of positivity and ideas Maria is ready to bring Nevada FCCLA to new heights with her passion and positivity! She will always remember that there is no mistakes in life just happy accident that we have to find out way around.

Maria is very pleased and excited to serve as the Vice President of Development for the year 2018-2019.