Organizational Structure

National Level

The national organization Family, Career and Community Leaders of America, Inc. (FCCLA), office is located in Reston, Virginia. Leadership is provided by national officers, the board of directors, and the national professional staff. The leadership, through the national headquarters office, gives direction to a national public relations program, supplies national publications, recommends programs for decision-making and personal growth, and provides pre and in-service training for advisers. The National Executive Council serves the membership as the youth decision-making body. The National Board of Directors serves the membership through representation of all phases of family and consumer sciences education. The national level of FCCLA includes every member of FCCLA in all 50 states, Nevada, DC, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam.

A copy of the national bylaws can be found on the national website:

<https://fcclainc.org/about/governance>

National Regions Level

The national organization is divided into four regions: Central, North Atlantic, Pacific, and Southern. Nevada is in the Pacific region.

State Level

The Nevada Association of FCCLA consists of local chapters within the state. State officers come from the all over Nevada and each chapter can nominate up to three candidates for election. These officers serve as members of the State Officer Team. Governance of the organization occurs through a board of directors. The members of the board of directors are comprised of Career and Technical Education (CTE) professionals, Nevada Department of Education, FCCLA advisers, FCCLA State Officers, and FCS-related industry professionals.

The State Officer Team and State Adviser develop and implement a state program of work that includes providing leadership for state leadership conference and regional/state events. They serve as an important link between the national and local levels.

A copy of the state level bylaws can be found on the state website:

<https://nevadafcla.org/resources/>

Local Level

FCCLA chapters address preparation for those careers with recognition that workers fill multiple roles as family and community members as well as employees. The local chapters of FCCLA are made up of students who have taken or are taking a course in FCS. The FCS teacher serves as the adviser.

DISTRICT I:

Schools in Carson City, Churchill, Douglas, Esmeralda, Lyon, Mineral, Pershing, and Washoe Counties.
